

After The Rain

Phil Mills

Intro: D D A Em G G A

An au - thor, name of Brad - bur - y, shows A sol - dier on the pla - net has com - Mar - got came from Earth and missed the
An au - thor, name of Brad - bur - y, shows

what des - pair be - gets; He built a Ve - nus mit - ted su - i - - cide. He hiked a long, long sun - shine left be - hind, But oth - er child - ren what des - pair be - gets; He built a Ve - nus of his own and made it sop - ping wet, With way to find a place both bright and dry. The in her class grew ti - red of her whine. They of his own and made it sop - ping wet, The fronds and vines a - bun - dant and lush growth un - con - dome he found was shat - tered, its roof a rup - tured locked her in a clo - set the day the sun peeked peo - ple on his pla - net have suf - fered in their strained, While peo - ple, pale as mush - rooms, wait for skin. He leaned far back, he o - pened wide, and through And sev - en years would pass be - fore an - pain, But all a - greed things would im - prove some - life af - ter the rain. Af - ter the rain, Af - ter the let the down - pour in.

oth - er glimpse of blue.
day, af - ter the rain.

ra - ain, Af - ter the rain, You get more rain.

Af - ter the rain, Af - ter the ra - ain, Af - ter the rain,

There'll be more rain. There'll be more rain.

There'll be more rain. There'll be more rain.

Spoken: Doesn't this ever end?

History:
February, 2011