

Don't Love The Hero

Phillip Mills

Intro C C F C C

Things are look - ing might - y grim un - til the lead ar - rives. He's Bat - tle's set for morn - ing when the vil - lain makes his play. A - Should have been a bad girl and to hell with "Hearts of Gold". You tall and strong. He don't say much. There's cold steel in his eyes. It's midst the shoot - ing, sec - ret smiles are warm - ing up the day. The should have made him pay for it or stayed a - loof and cold. Now man - ly how he holds your guns And holds his li - quor too. With bad guy must ad - vance the plot, Ap - pear - ing mean and cruel. His you're each wo - man's warn - ing sign: Don't make ro - mance com - plex;

bat - ted lash - es, pout - ing lips, You've got him hold - ing you, But there's las - er cuts in - to your breast. You're feel - ing quite the fool. You for - There's a chance you might sur - vive In - con - se - quen - tial sex With-one thing not to do... Don't love the he-ro Of a week - ly T - V got a - bout the rule... out ad - verse ef - fects.

show! He'll be fly - ing free next time, Which means you'll have to go. Love's writ - ten in the stars, you think; There's some - thing in the air, But if you check your

F C G C² Am con-tract you won't find it writ - ten there. You'll al-ways be his great re - gret, His un - ex - pect - ed sigh. You'll al - ways be a sym - bol of the

F C Dm Am F

C Dm F G Am life that passed him by. You'll al - ways be a mem - o - ry of things he should have

Dm Am C F G
 said, The sweet - est dream he ev - er had... but, most - ly, you'll be dead.

G C F C F
 Don't love the he - ro Of a week - ly T - V show! He'll be fly - ing

C G F free next time Which means you'll have to go. Love's writ - ten in the stars, you think; There's some - thing in the air, But if you check your con-tract you won't find it writ - ten there. There's fine print on you con - tract, but there's no co - star - ing there.

C F C G

F C G G

F C G C

History:
 December, 2007