

Found And Lost

Phillip Mills

♩ = 110

Dmaj7 Bm7 G D Dmaj7 Bm7 G D

I

(A)

Bm7 D G

said, "The riv - er claimed him," and, in that at least spoke All the vil - lage learned to curse the thing that I be - rid - dle drove me out once more to bear the e - vil

D Bm7 Em7 G Em7

true Per - haps they won - dered as they searched why came As I for - sook my pride, my place, and sun To slink through swamps, crawl un - der rocks, and

G D Em7 Bm7

one had drowned, not two It might have been a fi - nal - ly, my name Be - neath a moun - tain, chase that thiev - ing one Who cheat - ed in his

D G D

sud - den storm; may - be he swam for shore (With in the dark, my rock - y is - land home (I'm ask - ing and van - ished with no sign (What thous - ands dead in the An - du - in, what's one bo - dy more?) luck - y when a young, fresh Gob - lin thinks it's safe to roam) did it have in its pock - et hid? What it had was mine!)

G D

Bm7 D G

I wish he'd free - ly giv - en me what I took in the I wish I could have lived in green lands, passed a - long my
 I wish there was a pass - age home, a road to res - cu -

D Bm7 Em7 G Em7 G Dmaj7

end I found the ring of Kings' de - sire and lost my clos - est way I found a dead - ly, ramb - ling cave and lost the light of ing I found a des - perate path of hate and lost my pre - cious

D Bm7 A7 D

friend
 day It seems a sim - ple case of found and lost ring

Em Bm7 A

What I've gained and what is gone in trade But I

D G G6 G Dmaj7 D

can not know the val - ue and I can't pre - dict the cost Or

Em Gmaj7 D

if there's an - y bal - ance in the choi - ces I have made

1,2 3 Dmaj7 G D

2. A