

The Heart of the Mountain

Phil Mills

Capo 2

Intro: Am C G Am

Am7 C G Am

Wher - ev - er I walk, wher - - ev - er I
A - - lone on the plain, a - - lone by a
So far from snug caves, so — far from rich

Em C G Am

wan - der, The heart of the moun - tain still calls riv - er, It stands as a bea - con to guide.
cav - erns, To tra - vel be - neath the bare sky.

C G Am Em

This night I'll sleep in the home of my fa - ther. With its Strong - er than prom - ise of gold is the draw - ing Of the Here is my ans - wer, the goal of my quest - ing: As a

F/A C F Am <sup>1</sup> Am7 Am Am7

tow - er - ing peaks and its deep - hid - den halls.
mem - or - ies, hon - our, and lore locked in - side.
seek - er I lived; as a true King I'll die.

Am Em F G Am

Car - ry me Bur - y me No more to roam The

F G | 1 Am Am7 Am Am7 | 2 Am heart of the moun-tain's my home. home.

Em Em7 Asus G
 I know there's a price for your pain and I'll pay it. I Am Em Em7 Asus G Am know there's a debt and I'll set-tle what's due. I know I've been

Em Em7 Asus G F/A C
 giv-en the great gift of friend-ship And free-ly I give friend-ship

F/A Em Am Em F
 back to you. Car-ry me Bur-y me No

G Am F G Am
 more to roam The heart of the moun-tain's my home.

F G Am
 At the heart of the moun-tain, I'm home.

History:
February, 2007