

How Could It Possibly Matter

Phillip Mills

Em Bm7 C Cmaj7 Am7 Am Am7 Am

There's a gray wiz - ard lurk - ing out - side my door - way
 (Now) ___ dwarves eat - ing eve - ry crumb from my ta - ble

C Cmaj7 Am7 Am Am7 Am C Bm7

Threat - ens ad - ven - ture in the worst foot - sore way Tricks and trin - kets were Talk - ing of cav - erns ___ and traps to dis - a - ble Jewels, ___ swords and crowns

Am Cmaj7 C Bm7 Am Cmaj7

all ver - y well Mid - sum - mer fire - works and stor - ies he'd tell on a cave floor They need a burg - lar to get through the door

C D7 Am Cmaj7 C D7 Em Bm7

He'll come back lat - er; to - mor - row for tea. Why was he talk - ing to me?
 That leads to pla - ces I don't need to see Why are they look - ing at me?

C D7 Am Em D7 G

Why was he talk - ing to ___ me? How could it pos - sib - ly mat - ter, Why are they look - ing at ___ me?

Am C Bm7 Am Em D7 G

dra - gons and gi - ants and gob - lins and all? _ How could it pos - sib - ly mat - ter, the

Am C D7 Em D7 G

world so large and a hob - bit so small? _ How could it pos - sib - ly mat - ter, if I

Am C Bm7 Am Em D7 G

stayed in my hole, kept my - self well fed? _ How could it pos - sib - ly mat - ter, if a

Am Bm7 Em 1 Bm7 2 Am/D G7

hob - bit hid un - der his bed? Now _ But... Pipe - weed 'll grow if I'm

Am/D G Am/D G7 Am/D G
 here or I'm gone. _ Neigh-bors won't no-tice; we'll be off be-fore dawn _ With a
 Am/D G7 Am/D G Am/D G7
 map of the East and a path-way to gold _ Through val-leys and moun-tains as in
 Am/D G Am/D G7 Am/D G
 le-gends of old. _ My fam-ily bred he-roes I can't o-ver-look _ Not pre-Am C D7 Em Bm7 Em D7
 dict-a-ble Bag-gins-es, but roar-ing rough Took's. How could it pos-sib-ly
 G Am C Bm7 Am Em D7
 mat-ter, dra-gons and gi-ants and gob-lins and all? _ How could it pos-sib-ly
 G Am C D7 Em D7
 mat-ter, the world so large and a hob-bit so small? How could it pos-sib-ly
 G Am C Bm7 Am
 mat-ter, if I walked in the woods, left my nice safe hole? _
 Em D7 G Am Bm7 Em
 How could it pos-sib-ly mat-ter, if a hob-bit just went for a stroll? If a Rit.
 Am Bm7 Em
 hob-bit just went for a stroll...

History:
May, 2005