

Personified Death

Phil Mills

Capo 3

G D Am D G

Per - son - i - fied
Per - son - i - fied
Per - son - i - fied
Per - son - i - fied
Per - son - i - fied

D Am

Death owns a scythe and a black cloak. He lives on the Death has no friends and few lov - ers. The grim - ly se - Death takes his date to a mov - ie: A com - ed - y Death has the worst ta - ble man - ners. His skel - et - al Death has ac - cept - ed re - jec - tion, But still he loves

Em/B Am G

roy - al - ties Tar - ot cards pay, And fees on the duced pre - fer one night af - fairs, For lin - ger - ing show or a mus - ic prem - ier. Fake hor - ror he jaws dis - close food as he chews. He can't hold his wo - men and e - qual - ly males. He'll set - tle for

D Am

side, en - dors - ing fine poi - sons Are sav - ings put Death, or Death too at - tent - ive, Pro - vokes not ex - shuns; re - minds him too much of In - struc - tion - al booze or e - ven his en - trée And nev - er re - goats on days he feels wretch - ed And fresh ve - ge - by for re - - ti - re - ment day.

 cite - ment, but rath - er, des - pair.
 films to en - hance his ca - reer.
 mem - bers which pitch - fork to use.
 ta - tion if all else has failed.

G

History:
 February, 2010