

Stealing The Sky

Phil Mills

Capo 2

Intro: G D G C G D G

D G D

He's chained to the ground in sight of the (Once) free of my shell, I chose my own
(Our) first choice is simple but holds us for -

G C gal - lows, His wings fold - ed ov - er his head. And his cap - tain To car - ry, o - bey, and de - fend And ___ ev - er: Live wild or live part of a pair And ___ tal - ons have torn the raw earth in - to fur - rows; His if you should kill him, I'd tear down your cit - ies As choos - ing that bond de - fines an ex - ist - ence, To tail whips an oak's bark to shreds. The trap - door has sure as it meant my own end. No rules could dis - us, as im - port - ant as air. To - mor - row, we'll fal - len and, with it, has tak - en One half of one bod - y and suade me for, like mu - til - a - tion, That pain would en - dure 'til I rise when you call us to bat - tle, To car - ry your wea - pons and mind. He clings to the thought, how they touched clouds to - died, So I can't be - lieve that some oth - er lost fight. For now, ex - plan - a - tions are worth less than geth - er, Of two lives so close - ly en - twined. You've dra - gon Would feel that much diff - erent than I.

G D

G C D

Am G

Am C D

C G D

 si - lence; No dra - gon for - gives you to - night.

Am7 G D

tak - en his sky, _____ A - live, but with no will to fly. If

Am Bm Am

some - thing as eas - y as death pays for trea - son, What crime could

Bm Am7 G D

serve as a rea - son for steal - ing the sky? _____ Once
 Our

3 D Am7 G

You've tak - en his sky, _____ A - live, but with no will to fly. If some - thing as eas - y as death pays for trea - son,

D Am Bm

Am Bm Am7 G

What crime could serve as a rea - son for steal - ing the sky? _____

History:
 September, 2011