

Stove Button Blues

Phil Mills

Intro: A D A A7 E D A

E7 A D

There's a but-ton on the stove in my kit-chen. It says, "stop time". There's a but-ton on the stove in my kit-chen. It says, "stop time". When the world treats you bad, I bet-cha

A A7 D D7

A E

D A E7 1,2 3

wish you had a but-ton like mine. Tel - e - phone Yes - ter - day,

A D7

call from my fore-man, fac - t'ry's shut-ting down.
Kate said she's leav - ing, would - n't tell me why, Right

A

I should start a busi - ness; some - - one af - - ter Mar - - y, Beth, and Lynn dropped al - ways needs a clown. There's a but-ton on the stove in my 'round to say good - bye.

A7 D

D7 A

kit - chen. It says, "stop time". But there's I had no need to push it 'cause I've still got a dol - lar and a dime. no way to reach it; Don - na's done all these strange things to my spine.

E D A

E7 3 A D7

Op - ened my last whis - ky bot - tle, did - n't have no more, Some - bod - y called up a de - mon, sent it to my home. I

A A7

Knocked it with my el - bow and it shat - tered on the floor. There's a punched that "stop time" but - ton and I froze it like a stone. There's a but - ton on the stove in my kit - chen. It says, "stop time". I was but - ton on the stove in my kit - chen. It says, "start time"! One too ___ drunk to push it so I sit, with my sour ___ cher - ry wine. day I'll have to push it but, for now, ev - 'ry - thing is go - ing fine.

D D7 A

E D A

3 A7 A